

ASTHMA

1 in 10 Australians suffer from asthma.

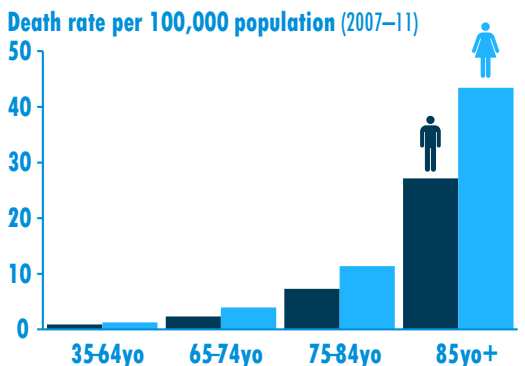

378

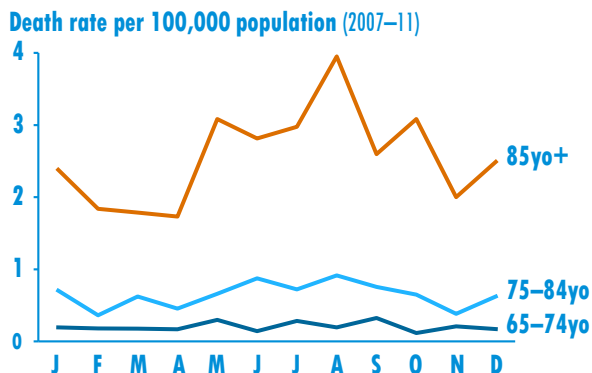

people died from asthma in 2011.

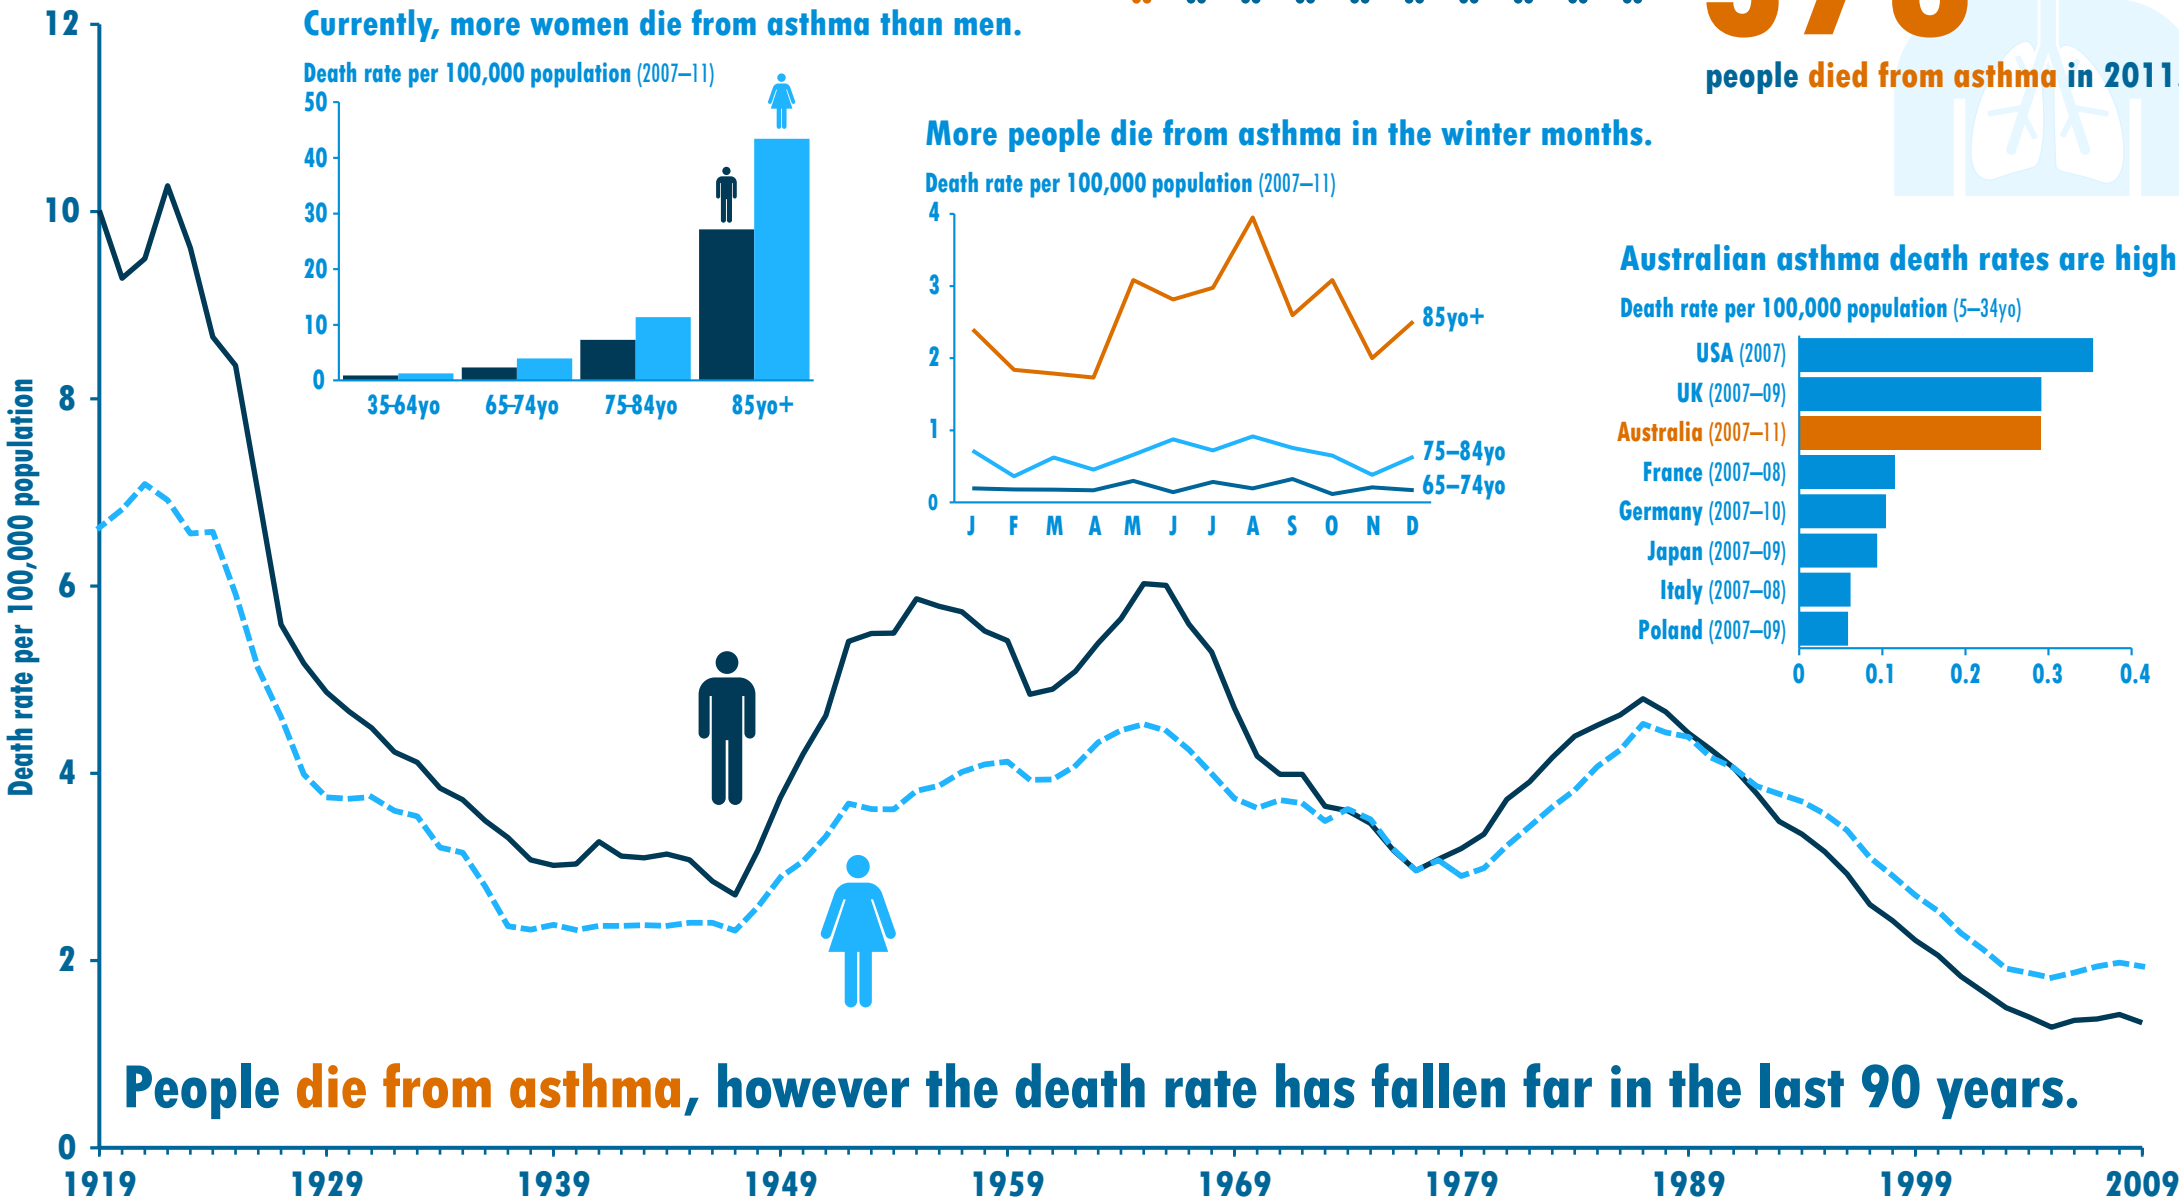

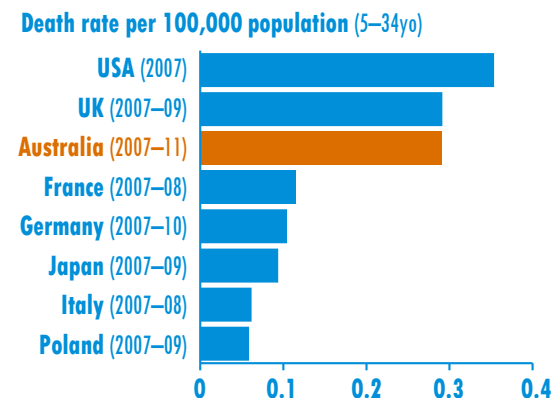

Currently, more women die from asthma than men.

More people die from asthma in the winter months.

Australian asthma death rates are high.

People die from asthma, however the death rate has fallen far in the last 90 years.